THE LINCOLN CHRONICLE

FOREWORD

As you look from page to page in this Yearbook, think of it as a long film strip which shows you some of the curricular and extra-curricular activities carried on in Lincoln School this year. You will see, too, the personnel of the school, who, with their combined efforts, co-operation, and school spirit, have made Lincoln School the fine institution of learning of which we are justly proud.

This is the fifth year that an annual has been published at our school, but it is the first year that the work required to edit it has been left entirely to the staff and its sponsor. We have tried hard to live up to the confidence Principal Redmon has evidenced in us. We hope that you will be so well pleased with this 1951 issue of "The Lincoln Chronicle Yearbook" that you will treasure it today and in the years to come.

We are grateful to all who have helped in anyway to make this Yearbook possible.

To those who will have the responsibility of publishing the Yearbook in 1952, we wish you success and hope that, if possible, your work will excel ours.

SCHOOL SONG

LINCOLN DEAR, LINCOLN

(Tune- "Keep the Home Fires Burning")

We are Lincoln sons and daughters Who have started on our way. We know not where life may lead us, But this much we can truly say, Lincoln helped us get a foundation Upon which we may build our life; If we're true to Lincoln's teachings We will all withstand the strife.

Chorus

Lincoln, Lincoln, Lincoln Lincoln how we love thee-We, thy sons and daughters true, Love thee more and more each day. We can ne'er forget thee No matter where we roam; We will always think of Lincoln As home, sweet home.

No.

As products of Dear Old Lincoln, Let us all be loyal and true, And never buing her name reproach In anything that we may do. Let's be real sons and daughters Worthy of the Gold and Blue, And as true and tried old Lincolnites, Honor her in all we do.

DEDICATION

MRS. MARY ELLA TYMONY

For her untiring efforts to bring about better school and community relationship by the publicity she has given the Lincoln School through the many notices and articles she has written during the last seven years for the local and state weekly newspappers; for serving as the adviser of a successful newspaper staff for five years, and this annual, we dedicate this issue of the yearbook to our sponsor, Mrs. Mary Ella Tymony. One cannot imagine the number of extra hours she has devoted to this work long after others have completed their tasks for the day and night. Regardless of who sponsored an activity, it was her duty to give it publicity.

We have observed her efficiency, sincerity, fairmindedness, dependability, and faithfulness both in curricular and extra-curricular activities. Although sponsor of students for four years who are now seniors, she has given guidance to all students and has been referred to as "the students' friend in need." Her many years of teaching experience have been most beneficial to the students.

OUR PRINCIPAL

MR. A. L. REDMON

I compliment the yearbook staff on this fine publication. May it serve as a medium to make memories more vivid to those who will recall in the future, days served at Lincoln School. Fond hopes and dreams can only be cherished by living in the past with happiness and serene joy.

Class History

The class of 1951 has a history which will give it a place of distinction in the records of dear old Lincoln High School because its members have been outstanding in classroom and all other achool activities from the time they were freshmen until the day of graduation.

The class has 16 members; namely, Kenneth Vaughn, president; Turner G. Washington, Jr., first vice-president; Barbara Jean Alderson, second vice-president; Mary Lou Reynolds, secretary; Velma Mae Cook, assistant secretary; Frances Terrill, treasurer; Ella Mae Jackson, pearlie Graves, James Garth, Vonceil Herald, George Jackson, Donna Burgess, Delma Mae Cook, Pauline Lee, and Rodger Davis. In the following paragraphs you will find some of the class' most note-worthy accomplishments.

The first year in high school the class was composed of 15 members. Katherine McKinsey was dropped at the end of the first semester.

Barbara Alderson, "Miss Lincoln", was the queen of Lincoln High School all of this class' freshman year. She won in the queen contest with 18,600 votes. This made the upper-class students take notice of our class.

Our assembly program in our freshman year was a play, "The Three Dying Swans." It was so good that we were invited to repeat it in Salisbury and Dalton. We gained a reputation for being good actors.

Eight of our 15 members were on the basketball teams; one in the band; and we were represented 100% in the chorus.

Thé class of '51 started its sophomore year with 11 members. Two classmates, Jacqueline Paige and Pauline Lee did not return to school.

Kenneth Vaughn was voted Outstanding Citizen of the class an was given a trip to Jefferson City, Missouri. He also tied for second place in the Lincoln University School of Journalism Essay Writing Contest. He was awarded the prize of $37.50 at the Headliner Banquet at Lincoln University in April of that year.

The sophomore class assembly was the play, "That Younger Generation". It was repeated in Macon, Huntsville, and Dalton. It was in this play that Ella Mae Jackson began to be known as the class' star actress.

Donna Burgess and Kenneth Vaughn were the representives at the Music Festival held at Lincoln University.

It was in our sophomore year that we began a project which has relieved us of all financial difficulties during the rest of our high school career. Our sponsor, Mrs. Tymony, took the agency for the "Kansas City Call" for our benefit. We began selling the papers in October of that year. We and our parents will ever be grateful to our sponsor for this.

Again this year, we were well represented on the basketball teams. Those on the basketball teams were: Velma and Delma Dook, Barbara Alderson, captain of the team; Frances Terrill, Carrie Arthur, Mary Lou Reynolds, and James Garth. The girls' basketball team won second palce in an invitational tournament here, while these girls were on the team. Kenneth Vaughn, although he was not in the dramatics class this year, played a part in one of the plays which was presented in several towns.

At the beginning of the next school year, when we were juniors we had 15 members. They were: Kenneth Vaughn, president; Turner Washington, Jr., first vice-president; Barbara Alderson, second-vice president: Mary Lou Reynolds, secretary; Velma Cook, assistant secretary; Frances Terrill, treasurer; Delma Cook, Ella Lee Miller, James Garth, Milton Rucker, and John Austin. Ella Lee, Turner, and Milton were non-resident students from Huntsville.

Ella Mae Jackson, Turner Washington, Jr., Milton Rucker, and Kenneth Vaughn were members of the School Publications and Dramatics classes. Kenneth Vaughn was editor-in-chief and Turner Washington, Jr. was sports editor on the "Lincoln Chronicle" staff. The dramatics class presented plays in three towns, beside Moberly, while these students were members.

All the boys were represented in the chorus this year. Donna Burgess, George Jackson, and Kenneth Vaughn, were also band members.

The Juniors entertained the seniors with a "gay, grand, and glorious" prom! The gym was decorated beautifully in spring colored crepe paper. The music was furnished by the "Harlem Aces." This is just another of the projects put through successfully by selling the "Call". We earned approximately $400.00 our last three years in school as a result of our sponsor's beginning this project for our financial benefit. We have been called "the rich class". We also were the first class to send out printed invitations.

Our junior class play was "Town Tattlers" and there was also a round table discussion on the play composed of the rest of the class, who were not in the play.

The girls' basketball team had four of our class on the "A" team: Velma and Delma Cook, Barbara Alderson, and Carrie Arthur, captain. Turner Washington, Milton Rucker and James Garth were members of the boys' team.

Kenneth Vaughn won the medal in the annual oratorical contest. He easily won first place.

Coming back to our last year at Lincoln we had 16 members. They are named in the second paragraph of this history. Carrie Arthur was dropped at the end of the first quarter, but Rodger Davis joined the class at the beginning of the second semester which made our number remain 16.

The entire senior class is represented in the chorus this year, and Pearlie Graves and Kenneth Vaughn are band members.

The senior class' assembly was given April 25. Their royalty play was "The Graduates Seven Guides".

In the annual oratorical contest our senior year, senen seniors participated. Ella Mae Jackson won first place.

Pauline Lee, our representative in the "Yearbook Queen Contest", won second place having just 5 subscriptions fewer than the winner.

On class night, we presented another Woolard royalty play, "High-Fliers." For our commencement speaker, we had Dr. Sherman D. Scruggs, president of Lincoln University.

Class Prophecy

The members of the class of 1951 are truly "high-fliers" as our class history shows; therefore, it is easy to predict the fu-ture of each one. By means of the school's film strip projector, let us see the class of '51 in '61.

You will see 16 individual pictures with these words under them:

Kenneth Vaughn, former Lincolnite who is now professor of English at Howard University.

Velma May Cook who was an assistant in a local shop, has established her own beauty shop at Detriot, Michigan.

Milton Rucker, head auto mechanic at Robert E. Smith Motor Cl. at Kokoma, Indiania.

Frances Terrill, the head nurse at Butterworth Hospital, St.

Paul, Minnesota. Turner Washington, Jr., is the book keeper at the First Na-tional Bank of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Delma Cook, an expert stenographer, has been employed by Wayne University to work in the office of the Dean of Women.

Pearlie Graves, pilot, is giving privite lessons at his own air port in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Donna Burgess Harris has recently published a cook book of her own recipes. This work was made possible by her wise use of leisure time as a housewife.

As we look through the film strip, we see Jimmy Garth being given the highest honor a Negro has every received in the Navy.

Miss Mary Lou Reynolds, Chicago University, Chicago, Illi-nois is now secretary to the professor of English.

George Jackson sitting at the bar, is a prominent lawyer in Kansas City, Missouri.

We see in the next picture, Rodger Davis, the postmaster at Des Monies, Iowa.

Ella Mae Jackson has accepted a positian in the Western Baptist Seminary at Kansas City, Missouri. She will teach social studies.

Barbara Jean Alderson, due to her efficient work, has been selected as librarian at Omaha University.

Vonciel Hearld is now stationed at Great Lakes, Illinois, as an efficient Civil Service worker.

While this has all been seen by means of the film strip projector, it is a good prophecy because the class of 1951 is destined to make good in life.

A TRIBUTE

PRINCIPAL A. L. REDMON

We pay tribute to our new Principal, Mr. A.L. Redmon, for his administrative ability which he has shown during the past year and a half that he has been at the head of our school. He has proved that he hopes to make Lincoln a bigger and a better school. We have confidence in his ability to do this because he came to us last year with qualifications as good as those of any other principal in the Moberly school system. He holds a B.S. degree from Tuskegee Institute and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Minnesota.

At the beginning of this year he began his program for the improvement of instruction in the school. His first step was to issue to each teacher a "Handbook of Information" with a follow-up of bulletins which were distributed frequently. Then, too, faculty meetings have been held once a month for the purpose of discussing topics of a professional nature. An audio-visual aids program has been inagurated and has functioned to a great advantage this year. A project to expand library facilities has begun.

Best of all, Principal Redmon has demonstrated democratic leadership and has as a result gained the cooperation of students and teachers. For the first time in many, many years, we can boast of real "team work" at Lincoln School. For such leadership we pay tribute to our new Principal.

The school newspaper has been an extra-curricular activity this year. In previous years of its publication, it was the special project of the School Publications Class which was taught by Mrs. Mary Ella Tymony. It was when this course was offered that the school paper was changed from the mimeographed to the printed copy.

MISS BETTY JEAN SHACKLEFORD

In this her first year at Lincoln and her first year teaching, Miss Shackleford has revolutionized the music department until it is now a credit to our school. The mixed chorus, girls' glee club, and boys' glee club have presented concerts here and in a neighboring town. Representatives of the music department participated in the Music Festival at Lincoln University this year.

The Lincoln High School Chorus is made up of students who enjoy singing and feel that they are doing their job along with other school organizations to keep the morale of the students at a high ebb. These students feel a keen sense of responsibility for they knew it is not only a privilege but also a duty to bring good music of the past and present before the public, performing it to the best of their ability so the public will enjoy it.

Surprising Moberly Five Meets Boonville For Crown Tonight

The up-and-down Lincoln Tigers of Moberly are slated to play for the state Class B basketball title on the floor of Lincoln University High School at Jefferson City at 6:30 tonight. They meet Boonville in the championship game.

Jeff City Cagers Beat Moberly in Tourney at Lincoln

Jefferson City, Hannibal and Columbia emerged as first-round winners this morning in the basketball tournament under way at Lincoln school.

Jefferson City defeated Moberly, 54 to 36. Hannibal defeated Dalton, 59 to 41. Columbia defeated Boonville, 60 to 54.

Lincoln's victory marked the first time in history that a Moberly team has won the Negro state championship. Squads of former years have won a second place in the tourney, but never first. The last second place trophy was won in 1939.

Lightly Regarded

The team was lightly regarded as play began Friday, since the Tigers came in only fifth in the CEMO Conference with a 3-9 record. But Coach L. B. Swisher's men scored a 45 to 44 first round victory over Mexico, took a 64 to 42 decision from Charleston, and then nosed out Boonvi'le for the championship.

The finale was a nip-and-tuck affair all the way. The Tigers were ahead by one point at 19-18 at the end of the first quarter, held a 34-31 halftime advantage, but trailed by a single marker at 49-48 after three quarters.

The margin never varied more than 2 points in the final quarter as the Tigers took the ball out of bounds to keep possession. The count was knotted at 59-59 with seconds to go when Boonville made a tree throw for a 60-59 lead, but the Tigers' Turner Washington swept in for a setup just before the final buzzer to give Moberly the decision.

Ralph Laster racked up 21 points on eight buckets and five free throws to gain scoring laurels for Moberly. Milton Rucker was runner-up with 17. Billy Alderson netted 9 points, Washington 7 and Ira Ewins 7. Donald Paige was the only reserve in the fray. He replaced Laster, who fouled out in the final quarter.

Robert Jackson of Boonville took individual honors with 26 points.

Counts 15 Points

Ralph Laster led the Tigers in the first-round victory over Mexico with 15 points.

Alderson was the wheelhorse in Moberly's semi-final victory over Charleston, getting 23points. John Scaife, Charleston's "big man," got only 9 markers: under the careful guarding of Ewing. Every member of the Tiger squad saw action in that contst as Moberly coasted in with leads of 22-10 at the end of one qarter, 36-23 at the half and 53-34 at the ened of three-quarters.

Boonville got into the finals through a 60 to 38 win over New Madrid and a 69 to 46 job on Joplin, last year's champion and seeded No. 1 this year. Joplin came in third in the tourney by defeating Charleston 65 to 39 in the consolation game.

Named to the all-state squads were:

First Team

Turner Washington, Moberly. Milton Tucker, Moberly. Ralph Laster, Moberly.

Jackson, Boonville.

Powell, Joplin.

Second Team

Billy Alderson, M Ira Ewing, Mobert Bruce, Boonville. Scaife, Charleston. Brown, Boonville.
